Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Grennell left this noon for Bangor, Me., where they expect to spend the summer.

Those attending the A. O. H. picnic may cross either at Marvin or Benjamin falls. A double-header will run all the afternoon.

The Ladies' auxiliary, A. O. H., is cordially invited to attend the A. O. H. annual picnic, to be held at Caledonia park Saturday, July 2.

S. J. Segel & Co. have a big line of small wares in men's, boys' and children's furnishings for sale on Saturday at half price, such as men's fancy wash vests, children's wash suits, boys' waists, boys' fancy shirts and many other things too numerous to mention. Saturday being their last day in the Seapoint store.

Just one day—Saturday, July 2, will be the last day for S. J. Segel & Co. to remain in the Seapoint store. Extraordinary values can be had on Saturday for all day and evening, as it is the wish of Messrs. S. J. Segel & Co. to close out all goods possible, regardless of their cost or value, in order to save the stock from moving. Everybody welcome to come and all goods cheerfully shown.

The Barre and Montpelier Street Railway company has made arrangements for the A. O. H. picnic party to cross my presses to Caledonia park July 2, 1910, and for this day only. All persons crossing after the said date will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, until further notice. George Benjamin, July 1, 1910.

Bob McLaughlin, the famous minstrel comedian, who is playing at the Pavilion the last three days of this week, proved himself worthy of the fame he has won. He kept the audience convulsed with laughter from start to finish, being forced to take several encores. His songs on local topics were timely and his jokes seemed to be all new. Mr. McLaughlin has just closed a long and successful season with H. Henry's big modern minstrels, being principal comedian and producer with that aggregation. His stay in Barre will be greatly appreciated by the patrons of the Pavilion. Regular meeting of the plumbers' local, No. 95, will be held this evening at 7:30. Per order L. J. Irish, rec. sec.
